Mental Health & Wellbeing – Panel Discussion

11.15 – 11.45

Drive Mental Health & Wellbeing Awareness Across Financial Services, Move Away From The Burnout Culture & Strive To Make Removing Stigmas & Taboos A Business Priority With Proactive Strategies

- Capture psychological safety in the workplace to drive inclusion and ultimately boost creativity to further your D&I mission across Financial Services
- Where burnout has historically been seen as a badge of honour, move away from the toxic culture of overworking to ease imposter syndrome, stress, burnout and increase mental wellness, engagement, and productivity
- From first aiders, awareness weeks, and specialised services, what are employees across the Financial Services expecting today from their organisation to tackle mental health and wellbeing in the workplace?
- Create an open dialogue and prioritise the onus and emotional labour to make change is not on the ones affected so everybody feels heard and is able to ask for support when needed

Data: Trust, Collection & Representation

15.55 – 16.15

Capture & Translate Critical Data Into Actionable Insights To Monitor Inclusion, Evidence Impact & Set Ongoing D&I Targets & Goals Across The Financial Services To Truly Celebrate Successes & Pinpoint Progress Areas

- Tackling sensitivity and regulative issues surrounding data collection: explore best practice on how to build and encourage a culture of trust so that employees feel safe enough to disclose their sensitive data
- Benchmark against fellow FS organisations and unearth pitfalls in your D&I strategies by developing initiatives and policies which specifically target these progress areas
- Ensure high response rates and returns on your data collection efforts by maximising engagement through transparent communication about what the data is being used for, and by ensuring the platforms are accessible for all
- Across the Financial Services progress is being made gradually around the gender pay gap, but how can we replicate these improvements to tackle other equally important underrepresented areas for bottom-line results?
